You are my brothers and sisters
because you are human,
and we all are sons and daughters
of one Holy Spirit;
We are equal and made of the same earth.

We, the Yearbook Staff, proudly presents
to you:
Aubade, 1982: Friendship

*This above all: to thine own self be true
and it must follow*

*as the night the day,
thou canst not then be false to any man.*

Hamlet, Act I, Scene III

*My friend is the half of my soul.
Someone to walk with,
Someone to talk with,
Someone to share with,
Someone to love*

*Someone who knows me more than
I know myself.
Who sees all of the good and bad as well.
One who'll help me to be my own best self.*

I saw Friendship strengthened between man and all creatures,

*and clans of birds
and butterflies,
confident and secure,
winging towards the brooks.*

THE DOMINICAN CAMPUS

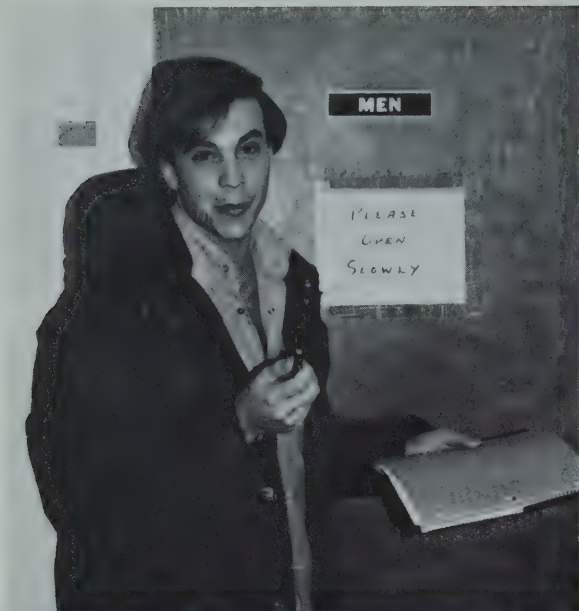

Friendship

in the Beginning ...

*Winter, Spring, Summer or Fall,
All you have to do is call*

*And I'll be there, yes I will,

and in the End.

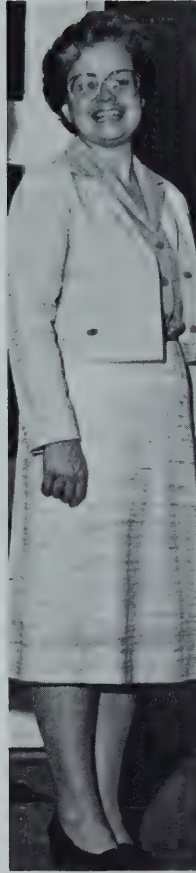

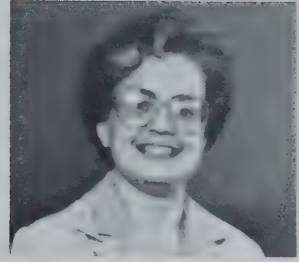

We honor you, Sister Kathleen, our Dean, in this anniversary year of Dominican College.

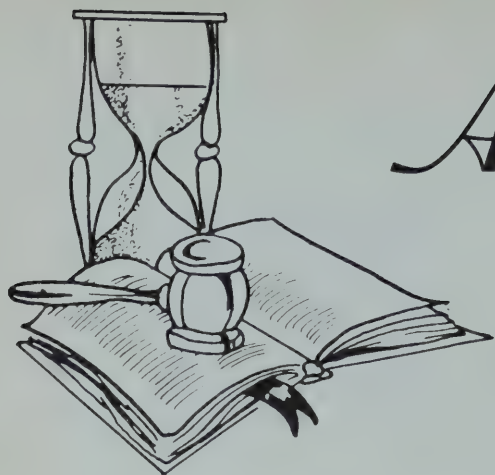

We see in you quiet virtue — peace, earnestness, dedication, joy and genuine concern for us.

We thank you for your example and support.

We dedicate to you our book, Aubade 1982, as an expression of gratitude and love.

THE KEEPER OF THE LOTS

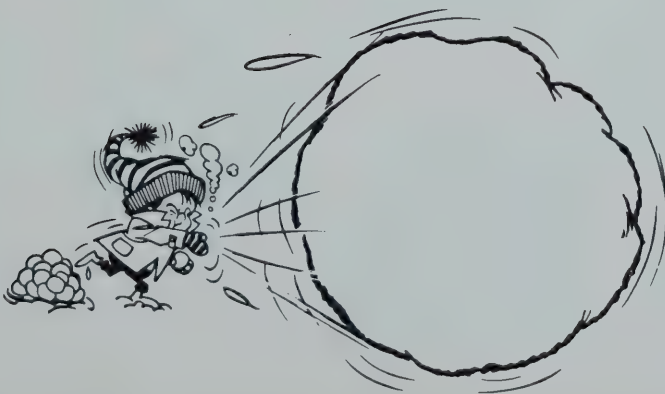

*The little things are most worthwhile –
A quiet word, a look, a smile,
A listening ear that's quick to share
Another's thoughts, another's care . . .
Though sometimes they may seem quite small,
These little things mean most of all.*

– Margaret Lindsey

The Winter of '81

There was a young lady who lived in a shoe ...

had so many children, didn't know what to do.

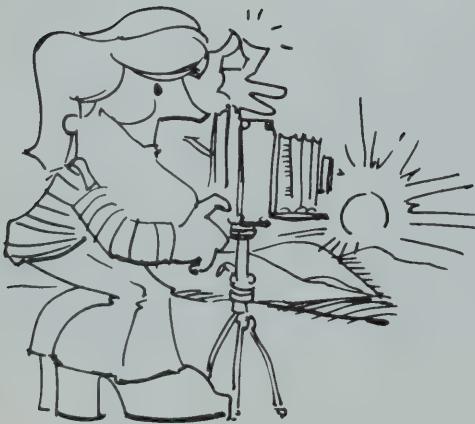

When you feel sad or under a curse . . .
Don't forget that when you get to heaven, you'll be blessed, Yes, IT'S ALL FOR THE BEST!

ALMA MATER

To thee Dominican College
Our minds and hearts we raise.
Your motto of truth we honor
Your lofty ideals praise.
These maxims we will honor
Though ever the way be hard
To thee Dominican College
We'll strive to grow e'er
Nearer to our God.

Congratulations, Dominican, on your 30th anniversary.

And now
join us for a few steps down memory lane . . .

Memories light the corners of my mind,

Misty watercolored memories,
of the way we were.

Can it be that it was all so simple then,

Or has time rewritten
every line.

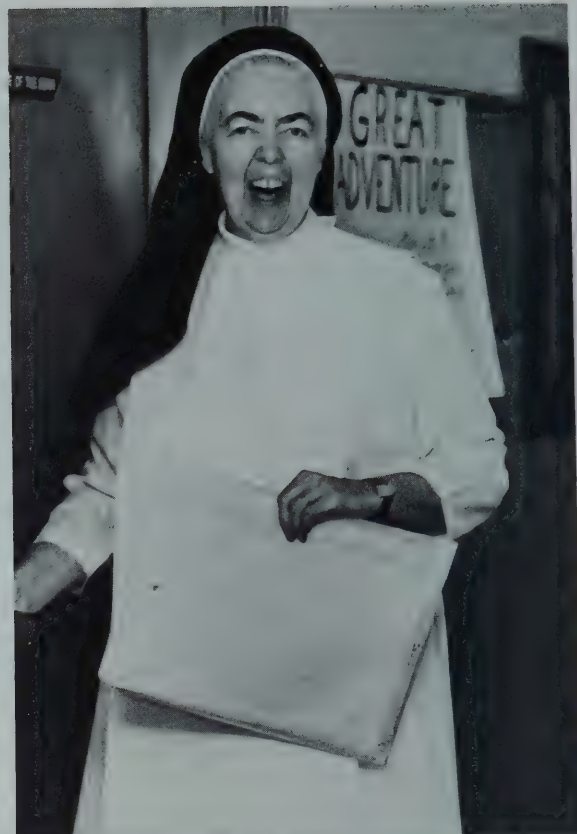

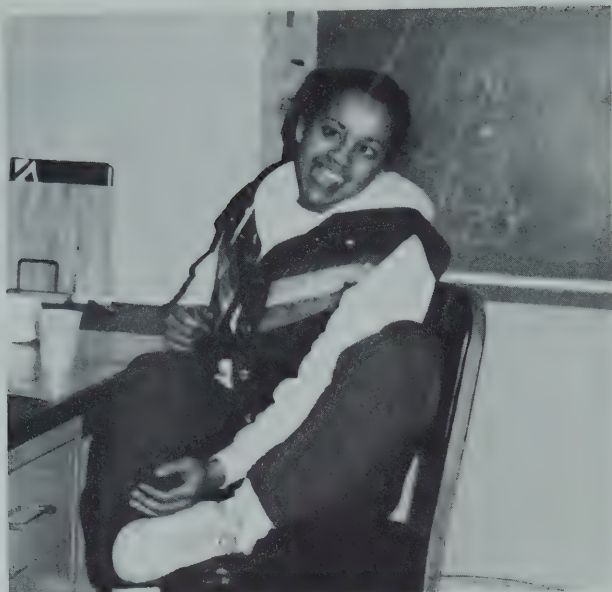

If we had the chance to do it all again,

Tell me, would we could we.

For it's the laughter

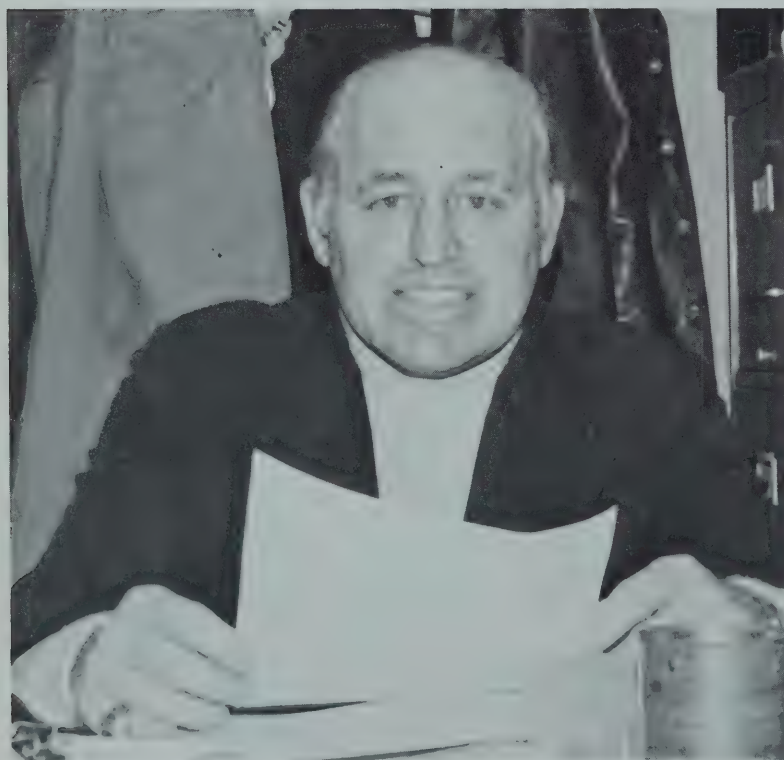

We will remember ...

Whenever we remember,

The way we were.

I have these moments all steady and strong,

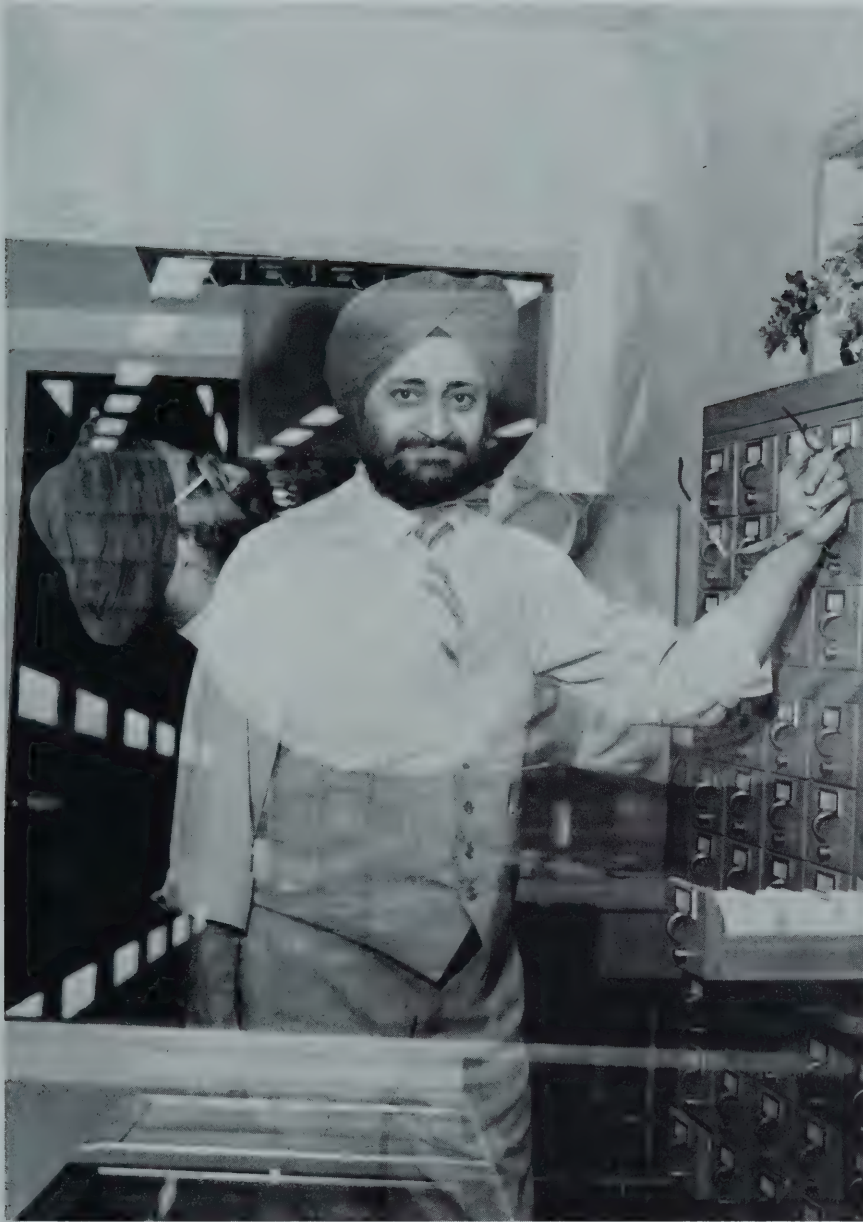

I'm feeling so holy and humble,
Next thing I know I'm all worried and weak

And I feel myself starting to crumble.

The meanings get lost and the teachings get tossed,

And I don't know what I'm gonna do next.

You reach for the sun, but it never quite comes,

But some kind of message comes through to you,
Some kind of message shoots through.

And it says to you: Love when you can,

Cry when you have to.

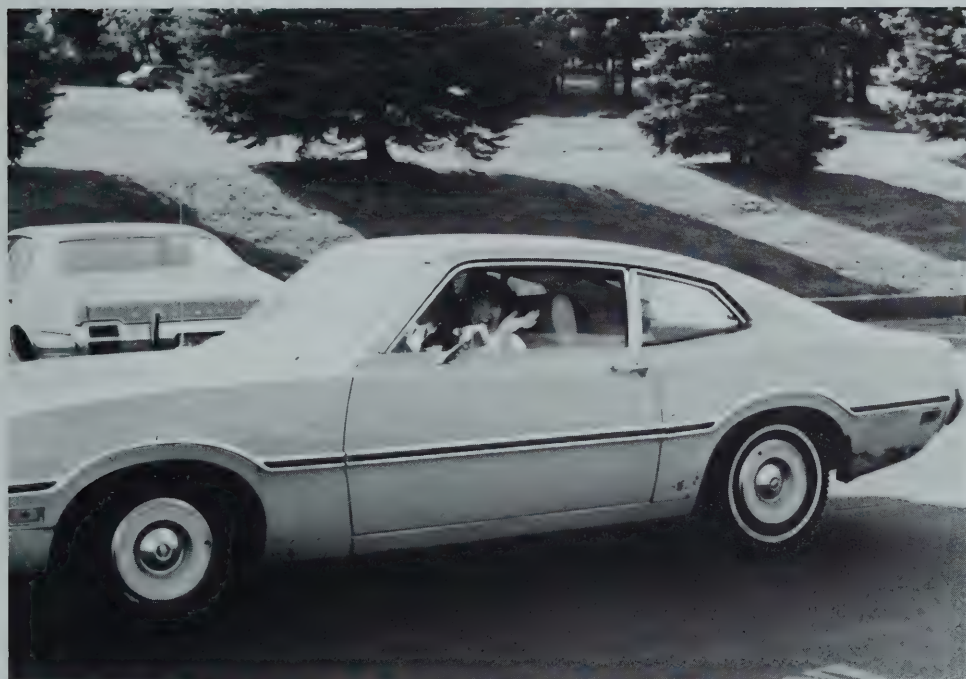

Be who you must,

It's a part of the plan.

Do I know you?
Walking down the halls of Dominican there are so many important things I could miss. That's why I always wear my Sillman Hollman glasses. I can travel all over the campus and not walk into ponds, people or trees!
I'm tellin' ya, your Sillman Hollman's -
Don't leave home without them!

You've
Gotta
Have Friends . . .

Lots & Lots of Friends!

you cry
He will bring you down and then he'll get you high Something keeps him going miles and miles a day to find another place to play
